

Since 1910 Cicrespi has been planning, producing, integrating and guaranteeing service systems for the: identification, traceability and security of products, processes and paths. This specialization, realised in collaboration with international partners, always provides a solution of added value to meet the customer's specific requirements, anticipating and favouring technological evolutions and market trends.

INDUSTRY

We can integrate your innovations with our technology.

How? Through the planning and realisation of complete and innovative solutions, for the identification, traceability and security of products, processes and paths.

BRAND IMPLEMENTATION

The promotion of the product brand first and foremost, sign for people in unknown environments through static and dynamic sign systems.

SECURITY

We acknowledge the value of your work.

How? Planning dedicated solutions and services for the tertiary sector for the treatment and finish of paper and printed material, products and systems for the safe management of banknotes and cash, printers for id cards and security passes.

ASSISTANCE

Cicrespi guarantees technical service internationally with online and local intervention units. Always near the customer, to help find the best solution during installation and throughout the production cycle.